And the Paper Proves It.

You have only to see Pittsburgh Wall Paper to realize that the leading artists of the world conceived and executed these beautiful and decorative ideas.
No other line of wall decorations have the uniform excellence of design and color effects.
Every pattern is a beautiful work of art. Yet not too fine nor delicate for practical use.
No matter what the quality, the same amount of judicious artistic sense has been exercised.
The desired effect has always been attained—beauty and utility.
Pittsburgh Wall Papers are sold in Reynoldsville only by Baptist Mission Chapel at Soldier next Sunday at 4.30 p. m.

A number of the Reynoldsville Baptists are attending the Clarion Association in Brookville this week.
Miss Daisy Strong gave a six o'clock tea to a number of her lady friends at Hotel Imperial Friday evening.
On Monday Judge Reed sentenced five prisoners to the penitentiary and three to the Huntingdon Reformatory.
Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Alexander gave a domino-whist party to a few friends Monday evening. Refreshments were served.
The picnic that was to have been held in Frank's Park last Thursday by the Ladies' Auxiliary and A. O. H., was postponed on account of rain.
A number of members of the Elk lodge at this place will go to Punxsutawney to-day to attend the opening of the new Elk rooms at that place.
A special examination for teachers who were unable to attend the regular examinations, will be held in the public school building at Brookville Aug.
3, at 8.45 a. m.
Invitations are out for a select picnic to be held in Frank's Park Thursday evening, Aug. 22. A number of young folks are expected from DuBois and Punxsutawney.
The new maps now being put out by the National Publishing Co. only give Rathmel a population of about 200 and there are almost that many school children in the town.
Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Storms, of Grant street, entertained the Enterprise Social Club Thursday evening. All members of the club were present. Refreshments were served.
J. M. Sheasley gets the free ticket to the Pan-American offered by H. Alex Stoke on the bean guessing contest.
Sheasley's guess was 2,645 and there were 2,642 beans in the jar.
L. J. McEntire, secretary of the Reynoldsville Building and Loan Association will go to Louisville Sunday and the B. & L. A. office will be closed all of next week but Saturday.
H. W. Eason & Co., who will occupy the new building next to postoffice with a full line of gents' furnishing-goods, expect to have their store open ready for business Saturday of this week.
The Utopia Society was to have held a picnic at Ludwick's grove, Paradise, Thursday, but on account of the rain the picnic was postponed and a social was held at the residence of Dr. S.
Reynolds.
The Oil City Fuel Supply Company has put in a larger gas line from Jackson street to the glass plant. The gas was shut off in town Sunday afternoon to make the necessary connection on the larger supply pipe.
Married, Aug. 15, at the Baptist church by Rev. Dr. A. J. Meek, Dean Hagermar, of Williamsport, and Mary G. Madden, of Reynoldsville. The happy pair left on Saturday for Williamsport, their future home.
William Simmons, an Italian who stabbed a fellow-country man at Rathmel on the night of June 24th, was sentenced by Judge Reed Monday forenoon to pay $100.00 fine, pay costs and serve two years in the penitentiary.
The 11th of May four cows owned by William Sowers, who lives near Brookville, were bitten by a mad dog.
One of the cows died several weeks ago with hydrophobia and another one of the cows died last Thursday from hydrophobia.
A special meeting will be held in Centenial hall Tuesday evening, September 10, when Captain Herman, of the Salvation Army, will make a statement of their work in Reynoldsville, the amount of money received and how expended.
Presiding Elder Smith was to have preached in the M. E. church at this place Sunday morning, but he was disappointed in getting a man to take charge of the Cherry Run camp meeting for Sunday services and had to remain there himself.
Robbers tried to get into Mrs. Lucy Gibson's house Wednesday night. She shot at them and frightened them away. Several hours afterwards the robbers tried to get into William Stanford's house, who resides near Mrs.
Gibson, and he shot at them. There were two men.
The M. E. church was the only one where there was preaching Sunday evening, and there came near being no preaching there for want of light, the gas having been shut off all afternoon to make some necessary changes. The congregation assembled before there was gas enough to light the church.
William Palm, an engineer on Low Grade Division, was badly injured at New Bethlehem Friday night while working under his engine. His train had a pusher and while Palm was packing a pony wheel box the pusher bumped the train and pushed Palm's engine ahead, catching him under engine. Had the engine moved another foot further Palm would have been instantly killed.

Musical Convention.
Prof. S. G. Smith, principal of the Capital School of Music of Columbus, Ohio, is director of a musical convention being held in Centennial hall.
There will be a praise service in the hall either Sunday afternoon or evening. This will be announced later.

Buried in Buffalo.
James Gillespie, the conductor who was injured in the B., R. & P. R'y collision at Carman August 4th, died in the Bradford hospital August 6th and was buried at Buffalo August 8th.
Thomas Black, of this place, cousin of Mr. Gillespie, attended the funeral.

Punxs's Fair.
We published the correct dates of Punxsutawney fair last week, but said in same article that the fair would be held next week, which was a mistake in that issue, but it would be correct to say next week in this issue. The date of the fair is August 27, 28, 29 and 30.
This promises to be a good fair.

Cow Died From Anthrax.
A valuable Jersey cow, owned by P.
McDonald, died some time Saturday night. It is claimed the cow showed no symptoms of being sick Saturday evening. Dr. F. F. Hoffman, the veterinarian of Brookville, who examined the cow, said death was caused by anthrax. He cut one of her ears off and sent it to an expert for examination.
The carcass was burned Monday.

New Milliner.
Mrs. Francis O. Sutter has bought the Milliner store formerly run by Miss Nelle Murphy. Mrs. Sutter, who is an experienced milliner, will go to Cleveland Friday to spend a couple of weeks in a wholesale milliner store studying the latest styles, and will also buy a new stock of goods. While Mrs. Sutter could do the trimming herself, yet she will hire a city trimmer to come here and do that kind of work.

Labor Day Picnic.
All the Unions in Reynoldsville will join in a basket picnic to be held in the grove near the glass plant on Labor Day—September 2nd. Prominent speakers will be present, games of foot ball and base ball will be played in afternoon.
There will be other amusements. The Keystone band has been engaged for the day. It is expected that a large crowd will attend this picnic. All the Union stores of town will be closed all day, giving the clerks and proprietors a chance to enjoy the picnic.

Home From England.
Mrs. John Trudgen and son, William, and Mrs. William Northey arrived in this place Friday from a trip to England.
As stated in THE STAR last week, the steamer they came over on collided with another vessel. The passengers were badly frightened when the collision occurred, but to make matters worse one of the stewards ran down to the ladies' department and announced that the vessel was sinking, which created a panic among the gentler sex. There was a sick crowd on the Oceanic the next day.

Hayride and Picnic.
The Nonpareil Club, composed of eighteen maidens, has invited the Ingelow Club and a number of other young people—in all about eighty—to a hay-ride and picnic at the Mrs. Noah Straus farm Friday night of this week. Last Thursday night was the time set for this hayride and picnic, but the inclement weather made it necessary to postpone the trip. The Nonpareil Club will furnish the wagons and hay and the other young people are to assist in providing something to eat.

Lightning's Work.
About 6 o'clock Saturday evening the hose company was called out to extinguish a fire in the home of E. J.
Marshall on East Main street, caused by lightning striking the building. The lightning struck the rear end of the house, and ran to the front, demolishing everything in its way. A partition in the house was pushed in, a fine looking glass was knocked to pieces, a bed destroyed, the bed covering and mattress partially burnt, and carpets were badly scorched. The hose company formed into a bucket brigade and extinguished all flames. The damage will amount to about $25 or $30. Mrs. Marshall and three children were in the house at the time and were all badly shocked, but not seriously injured.

An accident occurred on the Bullers band mill at Allens Mills Monday forenoon which came very nearly causing the sudden death of Peter Suffolk. As it was Peter's left arm was torn off at the shoulder and his left leg was broken.
Harvey Bullers was lacing a belt while the mill was running and Suffolk was holding the belt for him when the belt caught on line shaft and at same time caught Suffolk's left arm. Suffolk was jerked around the line shaft a half dozen times before his arm was torn from the body. The man would have bled to death long before the doctors arrived had not Harvey Bullers held the arteries closed with his fingers. It was over two hours from time of accident until doctors arrived. Suffolk is about 22 years old. He has a wife and three children.

Birthday Surprise Party.
Quite a pleasant evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Strickland at Hopkins on the evening of Aug.
9th. Mrs. Strickland was decoyed away from her home and in her absence about 30 of her friends and neighbors gathered at 8 o'clock and upon her return she was much surprised to see her house filled with friends. In due time it dawned upon her that it was her birthday. The evening was spent very pleasantly in music and conversation.
The tables were spread on the lawn and a bountiful and elegant supper was served. Many valuable and useful presents were given as a token of esteem.
Among the presents were two rookers, lamp, silverware, linens, etc. About 40 took supper and at midnight the friends departed for their homes wishing Mrs.
Strickland many more happy birthdays.

Business Change.
G. W. Klepfer, of Collettsville, Forest county, has purchased Bert Cox's racket store and will take charge of the store as soon as he can move his family to West Reynoldsville, which will be in about ten days. Mr. Cox will conduct the business until Mr.
Klepfer comes. Mr. Klepfer is highly spoken of as an honorable gentleman. He has not had much experience in the store business.
J. H. Hughes, undertaker, who is a brother-in-law of Mr. Klepfer, will occupy the rear of the store room with his undertaking department. He will move into his new quarters in a few days.
Mr. Cox, who has been conducting the racket store several years, has not decided yet what business he will engage in.

Clarion Baptist Association.
The Clarion Baptist Association is in session at Brookville. The meetings opened Tuesday at 2 p. m. with a sermon by Rev. J. H. Higby, of Kittanning. Wednesday is Woman's Day.
Among the speakers will be Mrs. L. M.
Newell, of Smethport, Pa., and Mrs. H.
N. Jones, of Philadelphia. The Associational meetings will close on Thursday evening. Among the speakers will be Rev. L. Stephens, D. D., of Lewisburg, representing the Education Society; Rev. E. B. Palmer, D. D., of Philadelphia, of the Home Mission Society; Rev. O. F. Filippo, D. D., of Philadelphia, of A. B. P. S.; Rev. Frank S. Dobbins, of Philadelphia, Foreign Mission Society.

Electrical Shock.
During the storm Monday afternoon lightning struck a telephone pole in front of A. J. Pottelwatt's residence on Brown street, West Reynoldsville, and ran along the wires some distance, damaging several telephone poles and giving four or five ladies an electric shock, who were out on their porches or looking out of windows. Mrs. A. J.
Postelwatt, Mrs. Daniel Brewer, Mrs.
A. M. Vandervort and Mrs. F. F.
Schurig were the ladies slightly effected from the lightning. The telephones at tannery office and P. R. R. freight house, which had not been shut off, were burned out from the lightning stroke.

New Grocery Store.
Richard Taafe, who has been in the employ of the Black Diamond Coal Co. several months, with headquarters at Carthaus, Clearfield county, resigned his position with that company this week and will embark in the grocery business at this place. Mr. Taafe will open his store in the room now occupied by J. H. Hughes, undertaker, about the first of September. Mr.
Hughes is moving to-day into room now occupied by Bert Cox.

W. J. Shaffer, agent for the Central Accident Insurance Co., recently paid Dr. D. B. Henry, Brookville, Pa., $25 for two weeks' partial disability, resulting from accident, shooting himself through fleshy part of left hand, also paid J. R. Brannin, Brookville, Pa., $45 under Health Policy for three weeks total disability resulting from an attack of enteritis. The Central's New Health covers twenty nine diseases and the cost is moderate.

THOMAS REYNOLDS DEAD.

Expired at his Home in Paradise Early Saturday Morning—Buried Monday.
Last Friday evening Thomas Reynolds, one of the pioneers of Paradise, retired for the night in comparatively good health, but he took ill about midnight and before the morning sun peeped over the eastern hills his spirit had taken its flight into the land of eternal rest. His sudden death was result of heart trouble. Tuesday Mr.
Reynolds had an attack of heart trouble and on Wednesday he went to Hancock to see his brother, Dr. W. H. Reynolds. While Mr. Reynolds was not feeling well after the Tuesday night attack, and having several slight attacks afterwards, yet he was not much alarmed about his condition. When he took ill Friday night he was given some medicine that was in the house and he and his family thought the attack would soon pass off,

THOMAS REYNOLDS, JR.

and it was not until about four o'clock that one of his sons was sent to town for a doctor, but before the doctor arrived he had fallen asleep, never to awaken again to earthly joys and sorrows. A few minutes before he died Mr. Reynolds said "I feel better now and will sleep awhile," but it was the sleep of death. And thus his earthly career suddenly and unexpectedly came to an end. He died sitting in his chair.

Thomas Reynolds was born in New York State March 16th, 1834, and died at 5.00 a. m. Saturday, August 17, 1901, at the age of 67 years and 5 months.
November 26, 1857, he was united in marriage to Christiana Ernest, near Panic, by Rev. Walls, a Cumberland Presbyterian preacher.

In 1862 Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds moved onto the farm in Paradise, where they ever afterwards resided, making Mr. Reynolds one of the old settlers of that community. He was a prosperous, honored and highly respected farmer and a christian gentleman. He was a member of the Reynoldsville Presbyterian church a number of years, but when the Lutheran church was built near his farm he transferred his membership to that church. He was an elder in the Lutheran church four years.

It was Mr. Reynolds' intention to move into town as soon as he could buy a suitable house. His host of friends here would have given him a cordial welcome as a citizen of Reynoldsville.
He was a man that believed in doing unto others as you would have them do unto you, consequently his friends were numerous. He had good control of his temper, never allowing it to get the upper hand of him.

Unto Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds eight children were born, four sons and four daughters, and the father was the first member of the family to be cut down by the grim reaper. The widow and eight children survive him. Following are the names of the sons and daughters: Mary, who is married to Jess Mulholland, Anna, married to Frank McClarren, H.
Tilton Reynolds, W. D. Reynolds, Minnie, married to W. M. McDonald and resides at Turtle Creek, Pa., J. E., Maggie and S. P. Reynolds.

Funeral services were held in the Paradise Lutheran church, at 10.00 a. m., Monday, conducted by the pastor of the church, Rev. W. Selner, who preached an excellent sermon from the following text: "Be thou faithful unto death and I will give thee a crown of life." Rev. 2:10. As the deceased was well known and highly esteemed, the funeral was very large.
The body was laid to rest beneath the soil of the McClelland burying ground to await the resurrection morning.

Killed by Live Wire.

A. J. Baughman, employed as a trimmer by the DuBois Electric Light Company, was instantly killed at that place last night by coming in contact with a live wire.

G. J. Corwin will close his gallery about Aug. 29 for his annual vacation.
He will be gone for two or three weeks.
